

Colloquium of Vilnius University Faculty of History and Oulu University Faculty of Humanities: Independence, Political Parties and Parliaments in Lithuania and Finland between Two World Wars

Date: 9th November 2023

Venue: Vilnius, Vilnius University Faculty of History, Universiteto 7, room 211

09.00–09.15 Opening session

Assoc. Prof. Loreta Skurvydaitė – Dean of Faculty of History

Elina Rimppi – Deputy Head of Mission Embassy of Finland in Vilnius

Prof Kari Alenius – Oulu University

09.15–10.15 Session I

09.15–09.45 Commemorating Finland's independence in the organs of leading Finnish parties in the interwar period

Kari Alenius – University of Oulu

09.45–10.15 East Karelian independence Activists as Political Actors in Finland 1918-1922

Eetu Riskumäki – University of Oulu

10.15–10.30 Coffee break.

10.30–12.00 Session II

10.30–11.00 Foreign Policy priorities of Constituent Assembly of Lithuania in the years of 1920-1922

Andrius Grodis – Vilnius University

11.00–11.30 Right Wing Radicalism in Finland during the Interwar period – The Ideology of Academic Karelia Society Employed as Colonialist Practice in Ingria

Outi Kähäri – University of Oulu

11.30–12.00 Parliamentarism and Party politics in Lithuania, 1920 -1927: The case of Christian Democracy

Artūras Svarauskas – The Lithuanian Institute of History

12.00–12.45 Lunch break

12.45–14.15 Session III

12.45–13.15 The fight of Lithuanian political parties in the periodical press: Lithuanian political cartoon in 1920-1926

Lina Hall – Vilnius University

13.15–13.45 Women parliamentarians in interwar Finland: intersections of class and gender

Tiina Kinnunen – University of Oulu

13.45–14.15 Armi Hallsten Kallia, an international Female Official, Activist of the Women's Movement, and a true Fascist: Women's Places in the Finnish Far-Right Politics in the 1920's and 1930's

Pauliina Lahtinen – University of Oulu

14.15–14.30 Coffee break.

14.30–16.00 Session III

14.30–15.00 Comparative research potential of military officers role in politics in Lithuania and Finland in 1918-1940

Kęstutis Kilinskas – Vilnius University

15.00–15.30 State officials of occupied Lithuania in "Voice of America" programs during early Cold War

Inga Zakšauskienė – Vilnius University

15.30–16.00 Features of culture of parliamentary work: The case of Constituent Assembly (1920-1922)

Saulius Kaubrys – Vilnius University

16.00–16.15 Closing session